Character Traits

What character traits are being described.

Sally was happy to share the bread she made with villagers.

Timmy did not hesitate. He ran into the dragon's lair to rescue the young knight.

Emily slowly unpicked the knot. It took a long time but eventually she could start fishing again.

In Professor Magonicle's magic class, Thomas was always asking questions.

Sarah did not need to be reminded. Every day she put away the potions and sheets of spells. Her professors knew that she would always do a great job.

The young magician, always supported his friends and was greatly concerned when spells went wrong. He didn't want the others to be hurt or embarrassed.

Prince Alton always told the truth, even when it was difficult.

Even with pieces of rubbish, as long as Alex had paint, he could make something amazing.

Her room was always very tidy, Molly's belonging always had to be put away in certain spots.

He always waited his turn to speak, and never forgot to say, "thank-you"

Maria sat quietly on the porch swing, lost in thought, her fingers tracing the intricate patterns of the worn wood.

The old man shuffled down the street, his stooped figure enveloped in a faded overcoat, a well-worn hat pulled low over his brow, his eyes scanning the faces of passers by with a mix of weariness and suspicion.

With a mischievous twinkle in his eye, Jake sauntered into the classroom, his backpack slung casually over one shoulder, his easy grin suggesting he was up to something.

The aroma of freshly baked cookies wafted through the kitchen, mingling with the sound of laughter and the clatter of dishes as Grandma hummed softly to herself, her hands moving deftly as she worked her magic.

The forest was alive with the symphony of nature: birds chirping, leaves rustling in the breeze, and the distant murmur of a stream. Amidst it all, Emma walked with a lightness to her step, her senses keenly attuned to the beauty surrounding her, her heart filled with a sense of wonder and awe.

Which sentences show the character traits of a witch.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

LIVEWORKSHEETS