

PRESENT PERFECT WITH TIME EXPRESSIONS

1. Ever/never. Used to talk about general life experiences.

Examples:

Have you.....been to Berga?

He has worked abroad.

2. Already. Used to emphasize that an action has happened.

Example:

We are too late the train left.

3. We use just in affirmative sentences to show that an action happened very recently.

Examples:

They have.....lunch. They can't be hungry.

We have him. He looks very friendly.

5. We use still in negative sentences to emphasize that something hasn't changed.

Example:

We found the book that Sarah lost last June.

4. We use yet to ask if something has happened or to say that something hasn't happened.

Examples:

Have you finished the.....?

Susan hasn't.....

Notes:

Book. Page 11, exercise 8. Write a, b or c.

1

2

3

4

5

6

Book. Page 11, exercise 9.

1	I have owned a mobile phone for ...
2	My best friend has ...
3	I haven't ...
4	I ...
5	I ...

Book. Page 11, exercise 10.

TRUE

FALSE

 Book. Page 15, exercise 3. Write a, b or c

1 2 3 4 5 6 7

PAST PERFECT

1. Used to talk about an action in the past that happened before another action in the past.

Example:

They knew all the answers because they a lot.

2. Used to describe what happened before a specific moment in the past.

Example:

By the time I finished my homework, my mum a yummy dinner.

 Book. Page 13, ex 8.

1		7
2		8
3		9
4		10
5		11
6		12

 Book. Page 13, ex 9.

1	I 16 when my life..... forever.....
2	I.....so embarrassed in all my life!
3	This time last year I an amazing adventure.
4	At first, everything.....normal. Then I something strange.
5	An incredible thing..... while I.....to school one day.
6	They never Where I.....that evening.

 Book. Page 13, ex 10.

1
2
3
4
5
6

Whole
Day

While taking selfies

PAST SIMPLE

1. Used when the action is finished Example: I in London for three years	1. Used to talk about actions in progress at a specific point in the past. Example: When the teacher arrived, we on the tables.
2. Time is usually specified Example: I Berlin last year	2. Used to describe a context or set the scene. Example: The girls when John opened the door.
3. The period of time is finished Example: She last week

PRESENT PERFECT SIMPLE

1. Used to talk about past experiences. Unspecified time. Example: I this film before.
2. Used to show the present result of an action started in the past. Example: I my bedroom
3. Used to say that something started in the past and continues up to now. Stative verbs or permanent actions. Example: I him since he was a child.

PRESENT PERFECT CONTINUOUS

1. Used to show the present result of an action that started in the past. The action isn't finished. Example: I my bedroom. I haven't finished yet.
2. Used to say that something started in the past and continues up to now. Temporary actions or to emphasize that an action is ongoing. Example: He with his parents since he arrived from London.

Me in the mirror vs Me in photos

