

If the sound before "ed" is voiced (vibration in throat) the "ed" says /d/.

If the sound before "ed" is unvoiced (no vibration in throat) the "ed" says /t/.

If the sound before the "ed" is 't' or 'd' the "ed" says /id/.

Instructions: Identify the final sound.

1. announced _____

2. cooked _____

3. walked _____

4. talked _____

5. finished _____

6. looked _____

7. missed _____

8. washed _____

9. braked _____

10. laughed _____

11. kissed _____

12. slipped _____

13. touched _____

14. knocked _____

15. fixed _____

16. pinned _____

17. placed _____

18. skipped _____

20. traveled _____

21. administered _____

22. checked _____

23. asked _____

24. handed _____

25. prepared _____

26. planned _____

27. jumped _____

28. answered _____

29. coexisted _____

30. disappointed _____

31. admitted _____

32. tested _____

33. trained _____

34. selected _____

35. represented _____

36. added _____

37. feared _____

38. insisted _____

39. prayed _____

40. shouted _____

41. replied _____

42. hissed _____

43. persisted _____

44. yelped _____

45. whined _____

46. questioned _____

47. argued _____

48. lied _____

49. excited _____

50. moved _____

51. passed _____

52. chased _____

53. listed _____

54. escaped _____

55. plowed _____