

Unit 1 Humans and animals

Grade 6

Science

1. Write TRUE or FALSE for the following sentences.

- a. Bones are the parts of the body that allow us to move in many different ways.
- b. Our skeletons are made of the same bones.
- c. The skull is made of one bone.
- d. You should take the medicines that the doctors prescribed.
- e. We grow and get bigger because our skeletons grow.
- f. Our body can change in some way by the use of drugs.

2. Fill in the blanks.

- a. The signs of the illness are called -----.
- b. Some medicines can ----- us from getting ill.
- c. Muscles work in -----.
- d. A broken bone is called a -----.
- e. The bones in spine are called -----.
- f. A skeleton is a hard, strong ----- that supports our bodies from the inside.

3. Choose the correct answers.

- a. Why must skeletons be hard and strong?

- b. What is an example of irregular bones?

- c. How can doctors know whether there is a fracture inside the body?

- d. Why do we say that all medicines are drugs, but not all drugs are medicines?

- e. How can we take medicines?
