2. Match the columns

   PRE-CHORUS AND CHORUS

   That's the price you pay

   - Leave behind your heart and cast away
   - Rather be the hunter than the prey
   - 'Cause you're a natural
   - You gotta be so cold
   - Yeah, you're a natural
   - You gotta be so cold

   - Just another product of today
   - To make it in this world
   - Yeah, you're a natural
   - A beating heart of stone
   - And you're standing on the edge face up
   - Living your life cutthroat

3. Drag the words to the correct blank.

   bleeds peace find see shadowing youth truth

   Will somebody
   Let me [ ] the light within the dark trees [ ]?
   What's happenin'?
   Lookin' through the glass, [ ] the wrong within the past knowing
   Oh, we are the [ ]
   Cut until it [ ] inside a world without the [ ], facing
   A bit of the [ ], the truth
   (PRE-CHORUS AND CHORUS)

4. Choose the correct option to complete the lyric.

   Took an oath by the bloom / blood of my hand, won't break it
   I can taste it, the end is upon us, I swear / sweat
   I'm gonna make / mark it
   I'm gonna made / make it
