RELATIVE PRONOUNS

FILL IN THE MISSING PRONOUNS WHO / WHICH / WHOSE

1. David E.Hughes was a British scientist _____ transmitted radio signals in 1879.
2. Our friends, _____ message I showed you yesterday, will return home next week.
3. It is mostly the Internet and mobile phones _____ children use to communicate.
4. There is a man here _____ repairs mobile phones.
5. Young people _____ manage with new devices better often criticise their parents.
6. Parents _____ children watch TV many hours a day are worried about children's health.
7. K.Tsiolkovsky was a scientist _____ gave a description of the first flying machine.
8. TV gives us information _____ is very important to us.
9. Jules Verne, _____ famous novel "From the Earth to the Moon" described interplanetary travels, wrote it in 1865.
10. The most popular means of communication, _____ we use every day, give us opportunity to exchange information.
11. Bill Gates is an inventor _____ name is known all over the world.
12. The famous man, _____ is named Bill Gates, started Microsoft.
13. Leonardo da Vinci was a scientist, _____ scientific ideas made him famous.

LIVEWORKSHEETS