A. FILL IN THE BLANKS:

HINTS: PARAM | Versatile | Mini Computer | intelligence | Computer

1. The term _____ has been derived from the word 'compute'.
2. _____ can support 4 to 200 users simultaneously.
3. A computer does not have its own _____.
4. A computer is a _____ device that can handle different applications at the same time.
5. _____ is an example of super computers.

B. SELECT THE CORRECT OPTION:

1. _____ means a computer can work for long hours without getting tired.
   a. Diligence b. Accuracy c. Reliability
2. A computer can store a large amount of _____.
   a. Words b. Data c. Numbers
3. Which of the following is a microcomputer?
   a. Laptop b. Desktop c. Both (a) and (b)
4. _____ means a computer can perform multiple tasks at one time.
   a. Accuracy b. Multitasking c. Storage
5. These are most powerful computers.
   a. Supercomputers b. Microcomputers c. Mainframe computers

St. Arnold's Central School

LIVEWORKSHEETS