Watch the video and answer the following questions.

Which of the following is true about was / were supposed to and was / were going to?

- They have similar meanings.
- They are used to express plans and intentions.
- They are used to express plans and intentions that didn't happen.
- They are normally followed by the word but.
- They have the same meaning than their present forms.

Complete the following sentences with the right form of the verb from the box and the correct form of was / were supposed to.

take me to the airport arrive early make dinner

- You _____, but you got two hours late.
- I know I _____, but I had a lot of work to do. Let's order some food.
- Mom _____, but her car broke down, and I had to take a taxi.

©Esperanza Muñoz 2024

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Complete the following sentences with the right form of the verb from the box and the correct form of was / were going to.

go to the doctor
buy that car
call you

- I _____, but I forgot my phone home.
- Sammy _____, but she forgot she had an exam at the same time.
- Tom and Jerry _____, but an expert told them it was a bad purchase.

©Esperanza Muñoz 2024

LIVEWORKSHEETS