Answer the questions below.

Let's read.

Earth Hour

The Earth Hour campaign started in 2007. It is organised by the World Wide Fund for Nature (WWF).

It is usually held in March. The campaign encourages us to switch off electrical appliances for one hour.

It will help to cool the Earth. Many cities have taken part in Earth Hour.
