3 Read and order the words. Listen and check.

Hi, my name is Detective Hannah! I'm going to _____ (vesintiegat) the mystery of the missing cake by looking for clues! Can you help me to find the answers and _____ (olvse) the mystery?
I have to _____ (hrruy)!

So, the cake _____ (dispparedae) from the kitchen at three o'clock. Our cat suddenly _____ (appreaed) in the kitchen just before three o'clock. But I don't think it's her, because cats don't like chocolate!

I'm going to _____ (earsch) for clues in the kitchen. Oh, look! There's some chocolate cake on the floor. I can _____ (wollof) the chocolate cake all the way to the hall. I must _____ (remmebre) that clue because it might be important.

Now, I'm going to talk to everyone who was in the house at three o'clock. I'm going to _____ (sidcovre) the truth!

6 Read and match.

Hannah: The cake disappeared at three o'clock. Ed, what were you doing at three o'clock? What was Sophie doing?
Ed: Sophie and I were talking on the balcony. I was eating a sandwich. Were you drinking lemonade, Sophie?
Sophie: Yes, I was! We weren't eating your cake, Hannah!
Hannah: What about you, Danny? Were you eating cake in the kitchen at three o'clock?
Danny: No, I wasn't! I was walking up the stairs. I wasn't eating cake! What were your mum and sister doing?
Hannah: Mum was looking for chairs in the attic and Mia was playing in the hall.
Danny: I was standing on the stairs at three o'clock. Mia definitely wasn't in the hall.
Hannah: Aha! Mystery solved.

What were Sophie and Ed doing?	No, he wasn't.
What was Sophie doing?	Yes, she was.
What was Ed doing?	They were talking on the balcony.
Was Danny talking to Sophie and Ed?	No, she wasn't.
Was Mum looking for chairs in the attic?	He was eating a sandwich.
Was Mia helping Mum?	She was drinking lemonade.

7 What were they doing at half past nine? Ask and answer.

Louise / do	→	look / for her bag	What was Louise doing at half past nine? She was looking for her bag.
Max / go	→	go / to school
Tom / do	→	sleep / on the sofa
the friends / go	→	go / to the park
the children / eat	→	eat / breakfast

LIVEWORKSHEETS