Reading

12 Read the article. Write true (T), false (F) or (N) if there is no information given in the article.

The world has many amazing natural features. Here are some of the most beautiful and famous ones.

Uluru, which is also called Ayers Rock, is in Australia. It is a huge rock in the middle of a desert. Its usual colour is browny-red, but sometimes it looks bright red. The highest point is 863 metres above sea level. In the past, lots of tourists climbed Uluru, but usually not in the summer because it can be 47 degrees Celsius or more. However, soon it won't be possible to climb Uluru. Local people in Australia feel Uluru is special, so they want to protect it.

Lake Baikal in Russia is another wonderful natural feature. Scientists say it's the world's deepest lake. It's also the world's oldest freshwater lake. It may be 25 million years old. More than 330 rivers and streams bring water into Lake Baikal. There's so much water, in fact, that around 20 percent of all the fresh water on Earth is in Lake Baikal. All that water makes the area near Lake Baikal warmer. In summer, the average temperature is 11–14 degrees Celsius. This is cold, but it's warmer than areas that are far from the lake.

Niagara Falls is partly in Canada and partly in the USA. It's probably the most famous waterfall in the world. However, it's not the biggest. Victoria Falls between Zambia and Zimbabwe is wider and more powerful than other waterfalls. It's taller than Niagara, but it isn't the highest waterfall. Angel Falls in Venezuela is much higher. At Victoria Falls, the water falls 100 metres, but at Angel Falls, the water falls almost 1,000 metres.

The Colorado River is a long river in the USA and Mexico. In one area, the river cuts through the rock to make a very deep valley called the Grand Canyon. The rock is hard, so this took a very long time. These days, the Grand Canyon is very popular with tourists from all over the world. Some people take a boat down the river. Other people walk from the top to the bottom. But most people just want to look at the beautiful views.

1 Uluru has three official names. F
2 Uluru is not as high as Angel Falls. ___
3 People cannot climb Uluru now. ___
4 Lake Baikal does not have salty water. ___
5 Fish cannot live in Lake Baikal. ___
6 Almost 400 rivers flow into Lake Baikal. ___
7 Victoria Falls is taller than Niagara Falls. ___
8 Angel Falls is located in two countries. ___
9 A lot of tourists visit Victoria Falls. ___
10 The Grand Canyon is a beautiful place. ___
11 The Canyon is deeper than Lake Baikal. ___

ZoeM

I'm taking four days off later this month. Where's a good city to visit? I don't want to spend a lot of time travelling, so it has to be close to Dublin. And I don't have much money, so it has to be cheap.

> Lisa98
@ZoeM: Paris is great, of course, but only four days? That's not much time. How about Prague instead? I was there two years ago. It's a beautiful city with lots of green spaces. Prices for everything are very good, too, and the people are super friendly. Actually, I could say the same things about Budapest, so that's another option.

>ChelseaGirl
@ZoeM: Why not London? It's really close to Dublin, of course, and there's so much to do here: great clubs, restaurants, museums, everything. The traffic's bad sometimes and it can be crowded, but I wouldn't live anywhere else!
@Lisa98: I agree about Budapest. Great city! Definitely a good idea.

>SaraBond
@ZoeM: How about Barcelona! I had a really good time there. It's usually hot and sunny, the food is incredible, it's pretty cheap, and it's not far from Dublin. Oh, and one more time … Barcelona!
@ChelseaGirl: London? Are you crazy? ZoeM wanted somewhere cheap! LOL.

>AnnK
@ZoeM: Everybody else is suggesting European cities, but North Africa's pretty close, too. I love both Agadir and Marrakesh in Morocco. Choose the first one if you want beaches, the second one if you want culture. And my sister has told me that Sfax in Tunisia is lovely, too. Just a thought.

1 Who suggests several cities outside Europe?
a Lisa98 b ChelseaGirl c SaraBond d AnnK

2 Who says one city has very nice weather?
a Lisa98 b ChelseaGirl c SaraBond d AnnK

3 Who suggests her own city?
a Lisa98 b ChelseaGirl c SaraBond d AnnK

4 Who thinks one city is expensive?
a Lisa98 b ChelseaGirl c SaraBond d AnnK

5 Who suggests a city she has never visited?
a Lisa98 b ChelseaGirl c SaraBond d AnnK

6 Who suggests two cheap cities?
