Chapter 52

Strange Monuments

Given below are the descriptions about some strange monuments of the world. Read about them and complete their names by unscrambling the given letters :

1. It is a sculpture which depicts a shark with its head embedded in the roof of a house. It is located in Oxford, England. It was created by the English Sculptor John Buckley.

ADEHGITNNO _____ Shark

2. It is a tribute to Stonehenge of England. It was built by an American sculptor, Jim Reinders in 1987. It consists of 38 classic cars arranged in a circular way.

ACRNHEEG _____

3. It is an artificial cemetery, situated on the northern bank of the Yangtze River in china. Two officials of the Tang Dynasty named Yin Changsheng and Wang fangping built this temple on the Ming mountain. It features buildings and ghosts that provide a model of hell.

NFEDUG _____ Ghost City

4. It is an 11-metre, sculpture of hand by a Chilean sculptor Mario Irarrazabal. It is located on the Pan American Highway in the Atacama Desert, Chile.

AMONEDL _____ Desierto

5. It is a public sculpture designed by the French sculptor Pierre Vivant. It is located on a roundabout near Canary Wharf, London. It is an eight meter tall structure containing 75 sets of lights.

RTAIFCF _____ Light Tree

LIVEWORKSHEETS