"Hi! My name is Stephen and I live in a tiny flat in Brixton, south-west London. I chose to live here because there is never a dull moment in a city like London. I'm an art student and the hustle and bustle of so many people in one area is the inspiration for a lot of my

Another advantage of city life is having everything you need so close at hand. Living beside the Tube station means I don't need a car to get around, which saves me money. Also, there are shopping centres, art galleries and museums everywhere.

2. Stephen thinks using public transport is cheaper than travelling by car.

Of course, London, like any large city, has its problems, too. Londoners don't chat on the Tube or the bus and there is much less community spirit than in the country, where my parents live. In fact, they don't understand how I can put up with the constant noise and pollution, and traffic congestion.

3. Stephen's parents don't like the noise of London.

"Hello – or 'G' day', as we say down under*. My name is Marianna and I live in New South Wales, Australia, on a huge ranch called The Rain River Land. It's a beautiful area with fantastic scenery. I live here with my husband Joe and our two children, Patrick, 11, and Abby, 8. We have lived on this ranch for several years and love our healthy lifestyle.

5. Marianna and her family have lived on the ranch for most of their lives.

True False

Of course, there are some negative aspects to life out here. There are often droughts in Australia, and sometimes we can't grow any crops for months.

6. Life on a ranch has some disadvantages.

True False

We feel isolated sometimes, too, especially since the nearest neighbours are almost 100km away. Another problem is that many things are not as easily available as in the city. There are no local facilities such as schools, supermarkets and shops, and if we are ill we have to call the flying doctor.

7. Marianna don't have any neighbours close by.

True False

Although life here can be difficult, we wouldn't change it for the world."

8. Marianna wishes her life was different.
