English Download C1 C2 Unit 2 p.26-27

1. The actor's diaries were never intended for [neglection / resist / publication / public].
2. I am writing in [neglect / response / compulsive / inquiry] to your request for further information.
3. My uncle would often [resist /response / relate / obey] fascinating stories of his time spent in Africa.
4. I'm sure this is just a passing [fase / fad / urge / addiction] – the public will soon get bored of it.
5. Don't get upset; I'm [appropriately / urged / consequently / merely] trying to explain the situation to you.
6. I can't stop reading this website; it's so [compelled / captivated / appropriate / compulsive]!
7. Your [inquiry / fad / urge / drug] is being dealt with and we will be contacting you soon.
8. His behavior today just [reinforces / neglects / resists / obeys] the fact that he is not suitable for the job.
9. We were all [captivated / compelled / addicted / reinforced] by his fascinating stories.
10. Do you ever feel the [fad / inquiry / standard / urge] to just take the day off and stay in bed?

LIVEWORKSHEETS