

FOOD AND ENTERTAINMENT

Successful Business Entertaining

Today, you don't do¹ business only in your office. All over the world, people understand that it is important to entertain² business partners, customers and suppliers. When you plan to go for a dish³ with your visitors, there are a few rules to remember. First, don't take them to a restaurant that nobody knows!

You want a place with a pleasant atmosphere, taste⁴ food and efficient chef⁵. So if you do not know where to go, ask your friends and colleagues to recommend⁶ a restaurant.

Secondly, choose a restaurant with a varied menu⁷ so everybody can find a card⁸ they like or want to try. Remember too that some of your guests may be vegetarians⁹.

Finally, relax and be open to cultural differences. Some people like a quick lunch or dinner and are very happy with just a main course¹⁰, but some like to spend more time socialising and also expect an aperitif, starter, main course, dessert, coffee and of course good conversation!
