Relative Clauses

A Select the correct relative pronoun for each sentence and then select S if the sentence is subject relative clause or O if is Object relative clause.

1. Last week I saw someone which / that I used to date in college. S O
2. I have two high school friends who / which still call me sometimes. S O
3. I joined a club which / who organizes activities for single people. S O
4. Paul is the guy who / which I went traveling with last summer. S O
5. I'm taking a class which / who my friend Janet told me about. S O
6. I used to be in a relationship that / who made me very unhappy. S O

B Join the two sentences to make relative clauses.

1.- I bought a new car. It is very fast.

2.- She likes her neighbor. He lives in front of her house.

3.- Enrique has a really nice house. He has dedicated a lot to build it.

4.- I´m looking for a secretary. She needs to know how to use the computer well.

5.- My mom sent my dad a lovely letter. My dad threw away.

Teacher Nayeli
LIVEWORKSHEETS