Nombre: _____ Fecha: _____

THE ADVENTURE OF OLIVER

TThe teacher will read Oliver's story aloud three times. You must pay attention and fill in the blank with the missing word.

Click here

Oliver was a ten-year-old boy with _____ hair and _____ eyes. He was a bit _____ than his classmates, but that never stopped him. He always wore his favorite blue T-shirt, ready for any adventure.

He was an _____ boy and the life of the group. He always had a smile on his face and a joke ready to make his friends laugh. He was _____ and never hesitated to try new things; he _____ climbing _____trees and exploring the woods.

In addition to being ____, Oliver was very _____. He always made sure everyone felt included. If someone was _____ or had problems, he was the first to offer help.

One day, he decided to organize a treasure hunt in the park. "It's going to be epic!" he said excitedly. His friends joined in, excited for the adventure. During the hunt, Oliver demonstrated his _____ skills, guiding everyone with his contagious energy and good humor.

By the end of the day, they not only found the "treasure," which turned out to be a box full of candy, but they also created unforgettable memories. Oliver, with his _____ heart and _____ spirit, reminded everyone that the most important thing was to enjoy their time together.

LIVEWORKSHEETS