Directions: Read the story My Weekend, and answer the questions.

My Weekend

On Saturday morning, Amina helped her mother clean the house. She vacuumed the living room while her brother washed the dishes. After cleaning, her father cooked lunch, and they all sat together to eat. In the afternoon, they visited Amina's grandparents. They greeted her family with big smiles. Amina's grandmother loves to read, so they spent some time reading her favorite book. Later, they gathered outside to relax and talk. In the evening, they watched a movie together. When they returned home, they were tired, so they went to sleep early.
