Maze 2

In the past, life in the UAE was simple and deeply connected to the desert and the sea. People (1)_____live in small communities, relying on fishing, pearl diving, and trading for their livelihood. The harsh desert environment required resilience, and families often lived in tents or simple houses made from palm fronds, known as Areesh.

Animals such as camels and horses (2) _____for transportation before they began to drive cars later on , and water was scarce, making it precious. People gathered around fires, sharing stories and traditions. (3) _____ Emirati people were connected to their roots and traditions, community bonds were strong, and hospitality was highly valued. Life was challenging (4)_____ filled with rich culture and heritage. I believe that this (5) _____down to generation after generation in the future.

1. A. have to
   B. had to
   C. were

2. A. used
   B. were using
   C. had been used

3. A. As
   B. Whereas
   C. If

4. A. in order to
   B. because
   C. yet

5. A. will pass
   B. will be passed
   C. pass

LIVEWORKSHEETS