Respiratory exam

Watch the video and choose the correct answers https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=gRWSyqatWQQ

1. What is the speaker's role?

a) A final-year medical student
b) A nurse
c) A doctor

_____

2. What is the purpose of the examination?

a) To check James's blood pressure
b) To examine James's chest
c) To take a sputum sample

_____

3. What does the doctor ask James to do with his hands?

a) Bring them behind his back
b) Turn them over and bring the fingernails together
c) Hold them in the air

_____

4. How does the doctor assess James's pulse?

a) By checking the temperature of his arms
b) By tapping on his chest
c) By feeling the pulse in his wrist

_____

5. What does the doctor ask James to do when inspecting his eyes?

a) Look up
b) Look straight ahead
c) Look to the left

_____

6. What is James asked to do during the chest expansion test?

a) Take deep breaths and hold them
b) Breathe through his nose
c) Take a deep breath in and out

_____

7. What does the doctor use to listen to James's chest?

a) A thermometer
b) A stethoscope
c) A blood pressure cuff

_____

8. What is James asked to say when the doctor places the stethoscope on his chest?

a) "Hello"
b) "Ninety-nine"
c) "One, two, three"

_____

9. What does the doctor check after asking James to sit forward?

a) Any glands in the neck
b) His lung capacity
c) His heart rate

_____

10. What was the final conclusion of the examination?

a) James had a high heart rate
b) James had normal respiratory findings
c) James had a lung infection

LIVEWORKSHEETS