Read and write True (T) or False (F) according to the sentences below:

1. Film is photography in motion. ☐
2. Film is a still image. ☐
3. The main thing that film and comics have in common is that they both tell a story. ☐
4. Film is one of the most important means of non-verbal communication. ☐
5. Comics combine still images and texts, whereas film combines moving images with sound. ☐
6. Some elements that film and comics have in common are the types of shots, frames and viewpoints. ☐
7. Comics and film share the same structure as they use shots and panels. ☐
8. Comics offer less freedom to present and frame images because of the possibilities of drawing. ☐

LIVEWORKSHEETS