Other Another Others

Name: Result: __/18 Date: __/__/20__

1. The friends looked at one __another__ in surprise.

2. Touch is the sense which very nearly takes the place of all the __others__, and which alone is indispensable.

3. We must get the _____ man into this.

4. The _____ of the party, however they might be puzzled by the serious problem that confronted them, would not allow themselves to despair.

5. They looked at one _____ in silence.

6. She looked at some of the _____.

7. From your accounts, he appears to be pursuing that line of conduct which, of all _____, is most favourable to us.

8. I don't know whether you've been depending on me-you and some of the _____.

9. They stood and looked at each _____.

10. One name is as good as _____.

11. I have _____ friends, you know.

12. There is, however, _____ side to this question.

13. It was perhaps just this uncertainty about his affection which made him seem more precious than any of the _____.

14. It is to think of _____ people.

15. I don't think I ever drove faster, but the _____ were there before us.

16. Then without _____ word she left him.

17. He stopped, and as soon as he did so, the _____ followed his example.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

18. And thereupon the head clerk sat down at his table, and the _____ followed his example.

19. Not _____ word was spoken on the subject that day.

20. They can think of us in no _____ way.

LIVEWORKSHEETS