Travel Collocations Uses of just

1. Complete the travel collocations with the verbs below.

do	get	go	have	help	light	put up	sleep	taste	travel

_____ away from it all

_____ light

_____ some volunteer work

_____ someone with their bags

_____ off the beaten track

_____ a lovely view

_____ the tent

_____ a campfire

_____ a local dish

_____ rough

2. Complete the text with travel collocations from task 1.

IF YOU ARE A TRAVELLER, NOT A TOURIST – IF YOU LIKE TO [1]_____ RATHER THAN FOLLOW THE CROWDS – THEN COME TO ICELAND FOR A WHOLE NEW EXPERIENCE!

Iceland is wild and exciting and you can really forget about home and just [2]_____ in this breathtaking environment. Stay in some of our lovely little hotels and you can [3]_____ of ice-capped mountains from your window. Then join us to go whale watching, or fishing in frozen lakes. You can [4]_____ on the lakeshore to cook your freshly caught fish and take a sleeping bag to sleep under the stars! Or you can [5]_____ in one of the many wonderful restaurants, if you prefer. Afterwards, you can relax outside in a volcanic hot tub!

3. Match each use of the word just (A-D) with its meaning (1-4) in the Learn this! box.

LEARN THIS! Uses of just

The adverb just has many different uses in conversational English.

1 for emphasis This coffee's just so good!

2 only I just need to finish my homework.

3 for politeness Could you just open a window?

4 close to the time I saw him just before he left.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

A I just have this small bag. ____

B Could I just ask you a question? ____

C I just made the 4.55 train, after all! ____

D It's just amazing! ____

4. Add just in the correct place in the sentences; choose the purpose of using just in each sentence.

1. I have a short time. _____ ____
2. Could you close the door? _____ ____
3. I got to the train in time. _____ ____
4. It's amazing! _____ ____
5. He has left. _____ ____
6. We have to buy milk now. _____ ____
7. This film's so funny! _____ ____
8. Could you repeat your name? _____ ____

LIVEWORKSHEETS