SIMPLE PAST STORYTELLING

Complete the short story using the simple past.

The missing cat

It (is) _____ a rainy day when Tommy (discover) _____ that his cat Snowball was missing.
He (look for) _____ her everywhere! Under tha table, behind the curtains, in the garden ... nothing! Snowball just (disappear) _____ .
Tommy (go) _____ to the police station, but the police officers (not want) _____ to help him. They (make) _____ fun of him!
The boy (decide)_____to find the cat on his own.
The next day he (hang) _____ posters with a picture of Snowball and his phone number everywhere, but no one (call) _____ .
So he (start) _____ to investigate. He (find) _____some pawprints in the neighbour's garden. He (knock) _____ on the nighbour's door and a tall lady (open)_____ the door.
-How can I help you?- she (ask) _____ .
-I am looking for my cat, Snowball. She is a white cat, have you seen her?- (say) _____ Tommy.
-No, I haven't seen any cat here!- she (exclaim) _____, and (close) _____the door. Tommy (think) _____ that it (is) _____ strange.
He suddenly (hear) _____ a meow coming from the lady's house.
-That's Snowball! I must rescue her!- (shout)_____Tommy. He (run) _____ towards the lady's house and (see) _____ Snowball through the window, together with other cats.
He (call) _____ the other neighbours, who (recognize) _____ their cats. They (phone)_____ the police all together and the lady was arrested.
The cats, including Snowball, (come) _____ back to their owners and (live) _____ happily aver after!

LIVEWORKSHEETS