

Extra Training

Listening Task 809

You will hear part of an interview with a rescue worker who helped after the earthquake and tsunami in Japan in March 2011.

For each question, choose the correct answer.

1. Simon helped after the disaster in Japan because he was ____
 1. a volunteer charity worker.
 2. a trained professional.
 3. on holiday there.
2. The most difficult aspect of the rescue effort was the ____
 1. poor roads.
 2. lack of machinery.
 3. poor weather.
3. Simon became very disappointed one time when ____
 1. he wasn't present when a survivor was found.
 2. he hoped to find a survivor, but didn't.
 3. his radio stopped working.
4. Simon says it isn't common to find survivors ____
 1. after four days.
 2. after such a terrible earthquake.
 3. one week after a disaster.
5. He says he found the Japanese people ____
 1. organised.
 2. very positive.
 3. hopeless.

