

A story has a setting, characters, and a plot.

Setting It shows the place and time a story takes place.

Characters Characters can be people, animal, or figures in a story. There are main characters and supporting characters.

Plot The events that happen at the beginning, in the middle, and at the end of a story.

Based on the story 'How the Tiger Got Its Stripes', complete the table.

|                   |                                                                                      |                                                                                                         |
|-------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Setting    |   | Where did the story take place?<input type="text"/><input type="text"/><input type="text"/> |
| Characters |  | Who were the characters?<input type="text"/><input type="text"/><input type="text"/>        |
| Plot       | What happened at the beginning of the story?                                         | <input type="text"/>                                                                                    |
|                   | What happened in the middle of the story?                                            | <input type="text"/>                                                                                    |
|                   | What happened at the end of the story?                                               | <input type="text"/>                                                                                    |