Homework #4
Capitalization

Instructions:

1. Look at the image.
2. Use your imagination and write a short 8-line story inspired by the picture.
3. Your story must include:
    - Capital letters at the beginning of each sentence.
    - Capitalization for:
        - Names of people and places
        - The word “I”
        - Days of the week
        - Holidays or events

Example:

On Saturday morning, Leo woke up with a big idea. He tied one hundred balloons to a red chair in his backyard. “I’m going to fly over New York City!” Leo shouted. His dog Bingo barked and tried to stop him. By 10:00 a.m., Leo was floating above the rooftops. “I hope I don’t miss Grandma’s birthday,” he said nervously. The wind took him all the way to the Statue of Liberty. Leo smiled and yelled, “I believe I can fly!”

LIVEWORKSHEETS