

Worksheet 3 : Describing People

Activity 3.1 Click on the frames and listen to the descriptions. Then drag and drop the pictures to their places.

Family tree diagram showing three generations. The tree has a large green canopy and a brown trunk. The top level (Grandparents) has two dark blue frames with white silhouettes. The second level (Parents) has four frames: two teal and two red, each with a white silhouette. The third level (Children) has four frames: two orange and two green, each with a white silhouette. Below the tree are 18 cartoon illustrations of people of various ages and genders, each in a white frame. The people include: an elderly man with a cane, an elderly woman with a cane, a young girl with a pacifier, a young boy with a pacifier, a young girl with a bow, an elderly woman with a cane, a young boy with a cap, a young girl with a bow, a young boy with a cap, a young girl with a bow, a young boy with a cap, a young girl with a bow, a young boy with a cap, a young girl with a bow, a young boy with a cap, a young girl with a bow, a young boy with a cap, and a young girl with a bow.