1 Annie and Joe have been married for 2 years, and had their honeymoon on the Indian subcontinent. They want to celebrate their anniversary, and are looking for something romantic. Being able to dance would be a real bonus.	2 - Jack, who is Chinese, likes to go early-morning cycling at the weekend and wants somewhere to stop and have breakfast before heading back. He is into healthy living.	3 - Bill and Betty like to go out for a meal on Fridays with their two 10 year old twins. They need somewhere informal. Bill works at the sea food market.	4 - Jack, Sam and the boys, who are musicians in a British band, fancy a night out and they love spicy food after a few beers. They want something reasonably priced.	5 - Megan is half Italian, and goes to music classes with her friends. They would like to have a meal after their class, but they finish quite late, and want somewhere they can laugh and chat.
