

AUSTRALIA GEOGRAPHY

Study the map below and then decide if the following sentences are true or false, by clicking the right icon.

STATEMENT	TRUE	FALSE
Perth is the most isolated state capital in Australia, west of Sydney.	✓	✗
Tasmania is an island lying north of mainland Australia.	✓	✗
Darwin, known as the 'gateway to South-East Asia', is the northernmost capital city.	✓	✗
Brisbane, Sydney and Melbourne are located on the western seaboard.	✓	✗
The Australian Capital Territory is about half-way between Melbourne and Sydney.	✓	✗
Hobart is situated north of Melbourne.	✓	✗
Victoria is the smallest Australian state on the mainland.	✓	✗
Canberra has access to the sea.	✓	✗
Queensland borders on the Northern Territory in the west, South Australia in the southwest and New South Wales in the south.	✓	✗
Western Australia is the third largest state.	✓	✗
Sydney is the capital of New South Wales.	✓	✗
South Australia borders on three states and one territory.	✓	✗