

ADJECTIVE / VERB + PREPOSITION

Drag and drop the correct preposition into the boxes.

We've run of milk. I need to go to the supermarket.

My little brother believes Santa Clause.

I agree what you said.

Our car broke so we had to call the mechanic.

Fill this form and wait to be called in.

She often argues her best friend.

He's good football.

Can you turn the light?

I can't wait the weekend when I can finally sleep in!

Turn your computer and go for a walk!

She's bad cooking.

I can't log , I've forgotten my password.

Tom is afraid snakes.

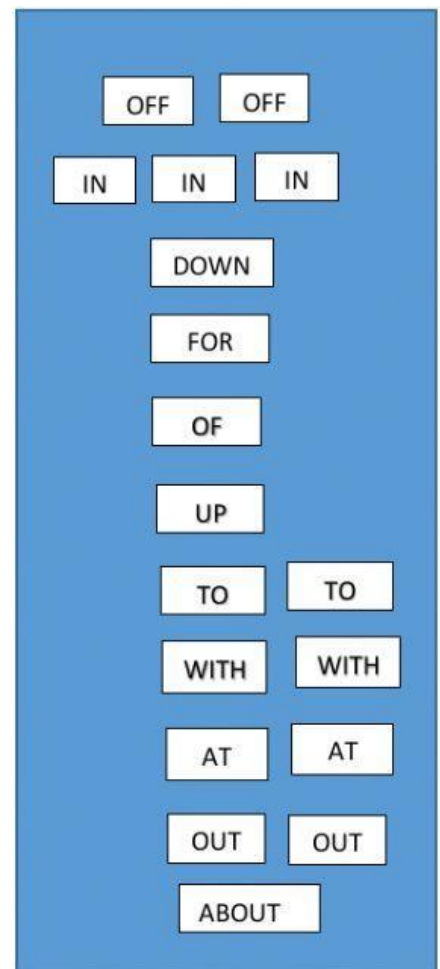

We travelled Asia.

He tried to keep with the other runners but he still fell behind.

What are you listening right now?

I'm interested learning how to surf.

He's worried his grades.

I was told by my teacher for talking in class.

My parents worry my safety.

This dog belongs my neighbour.

I get on really well my cousin.

He turned the job.

Turn that music! I can't focus.

I can't solve this Maths problem. I give !

I arrived school at 7 am.

I've met him once, but I haven't talked him yet.

He arrived to Sydney airport midnight.

I'm looking my keys.

Look the stars! They're beautiful.

The firefighters out the fire with ease.

I have to look my sister this evening.

You can look paintings at the museum.

Tom looks to Usain Bolt.

They're waiting the 8 o'clock train.

OFF

DOWN

DOWN

FOR

FOR

UP

UP

TO

TO

TO

WITH

AT

AT

AT

OUT

ABOUT

AFTER