READING COMPREHENSION

3. Instructions: Read the text and answer the questions.

Try it yourself!

You can do amazing things if you put your mind into it. The human mind has the ability to learn new things in a short amount of time. You can learn a new language, learn to play an instrument, write books or even practice sports.

5 minutes a day can bring great benefits if you want to learn a new ability. For example, Sarah Willmore, a high school student, paints in her room every day. She started with small paintings and is now very talented. She participates in competitions in her school now. She doesn't take formal painting classes, everything that she knows is by herself.
