Marco got a letter from his uncle, Ben, who is an airplane pilot.

Dear Marco,

I'd like to tell you about my visit to Rome. It was one of my best visits. I don't think there is any city like it in the world. Today, thousand-year-old buildings still sit side by side with modern ones. In the middle of the city, you can visit the Colosseum which is one of the most famous places. It is a huge round area built of stone. It had seats for 50,000 people. The ancient Romans held all kinds of events there. Many of the young people of Rome move around on colourful bikes because the traffic in the streets is very bad. In the evenings, people meet at an ancient building known as the Spanish Steps. There are many ancient fountains in Rome. The most famous one is the Trevi Fountain. Parks and gardens also cover a large area in Rome. The Villa Borghese Garden is the best-known large green area in Rome. Moreover, Italian food, such as pizza and pasta, is really delicious and fresh.

Best wishes,

Uncle Ben
