Text 1 A Read the diary entries.

Tuesday, 19th August

I went swimming with Sam and then back to his place for pizza and to watch a film. It was a great day until I got home — Mum started going on and on about how untidy my room is. I tidied it last month!

Things got worse. I was getting ready for bed when I tripped over a pile of games. I banged my head on the wardrobe. Ouch!

Wednesday, 20th August

Mike came over today. He wanted to play with my racing cars. There was stuff all over my bedroom floor so we decided to play in the living room. We were carrying everything there when Mike fell over a tray next to my bed. It was from my snack yesterday and had an empty glass and a plate on it. Unfortunately, the glass broke and Mike cut himself. It wasn't too bad, just a small cut on his hand, but he decided to go home. ☹

Thursday, 21st August

What a terrible morning! I was getting out of bed when I stood on some Lego and cut my foot. I was going to get a plaster for it when I fell over a pile of dirty clothes. I scraped my elbow and twisted my ankle when I fell. Mum ran in to see what was happening. She gave me a big hug. Then she got some ice for my ankle and plasters for my foot and elbow.

I asked Mum to help me tidy my room. It took ages! But we were chatting while we were tidying, so it was OK. I found the missing TV remote control under my bed. And guess what? There hasn't been any more accidents!

My bedroom is clean and tidy now!
