Enjoying travel

I always enjoy travelling, (1)..... (PARTICULAR) when it means visiting other countries. One of the clearest memories from my childhood is of going to Disneyworld. Some people disapprove of the place but I loved it as a child and found it just as (2)..... (ENJOY) when I returned years later as an adult.

I am (3)..... (FORTUNE) that my work involves a lot of travel. The two places I visit most often are Barcelona and New York. I like both, but there is a tremendous (4)..... (DIFFERENT) between them. Barcelona is relaxed and overflowing with culture. New York, though, is bustling and full of (5)..... (EXCITE). When I'm there I'm constantly looking upwards, overwhelmed by the (6)..... (HIGH) of the buildings. It is quite (7)..... (LIKE) anywhere else I've ever been.

I went to Tokyo last year and found it absolutely fascinating. However, my top (8)..... (CHOOSE) for a city break has to be Toronto; it is visually (9)..... (SPECTACLE) and I've had some of the best meals I've ever eaten there.
