Jim: If I'm elected, my number one priority will be _____ poverty. A large portion of our country's population lives below the poverty _____, and it's a fact that young people from _____ backgrounds are more likely to engage in criminal activity. My opponent, on the other hand, wants to cut funding for the _____ program and leave millions of people without help.

George: I believe it is a mistake to focus on our country alone; we must remember that we are part of a global community. Opening up more homeless _____ is not a long-term solution to help those on the _____ of society. However, investing in _____ energy will enable us to grow our economy without _____ the environment. This will benefit our country and our world.

Jim: That's a noble goal, but we have more pressing problems. I seriously doubt our citizens who are dying of _____ care about protecting _____ species and preventing global _____. Plus, it's not scientifically proven that humans can even cause _____ damage to the planet.

George: Don't you see that the two issues are related? Due to _____ change, the rain patterns have changed and our agricultural sector is not as strong as it once was. This results in food _____. It's only going to get worse unless we end our dependence on _____ fuels and start using _____ resources.
