2 Use the correct form of the words in brackets and write the names of the jobs.

Javed: What does your dad do?
Linda: He's an engineer (ENGINE).

1 Dad: So, Tom, what career are you interested in?
Tom: Well, actually, I want to be a _____ (BUILD).

2 Amy: My aunt and uncle live in the countryside.
Sally: Do they have animals? Like cows or sheep?
Amy: Yes, they're _____ (FARM).

3 Pam: Is it easy to become a _____ (TEACH)?
Jo: Well, there's a lot to learn. Not everyone can do it.

4 Sue: You've got a lovely voice. Why don't you join the drama club?
Dan: No way. I'd hate to be an _____ (ACT).

5 Phil: You're really good at drawing.
Cath: Thanks. I'd love to be an _____ (ART) in Paris or Florence.

6 Tim: My ambition is to become a _____ (SCIENCE).
Mum: Well, if you work hard, you could be a really good biologist.

7 Amy: Why do you want to be an _____ ? (COUNT)
Sam: I like working with details.

4 Complete the dialogue with job or work in each gap.

Woman: Can I help you?
Man: Yes, I'm looking for a job.
Woman: Do you want a part-time [1]_____ or do you want to [2]_____ full time?
Man: I want a full-time [3]_____ . I don't want to [4]_____ part time.
Woman: Can you [5]_____ at night?
Man: I don't mind when I [6]_____ but I'd like a well-paid [7]_____ . I can [8]_____ long hours and I always [9]_____ hard. I don't want to [10]_____ only eight hours a day – I can stay at work for twelve hours or more!
Woman: Well, we need factory workers. We pay £10 an hour.
Man: Have you got anything else? That's quite a boring [11]_____ and quite a badly-paid [12]_____ too. I'm hoping for £15 an hour or more.

LIVEWORKSHEETS