Karim's Story

Karim is a 12 years old boy from Kuala Lumpur who likes to cook. He starts helping his mother in the kitchen when he was only 9 years old, At that time, he made simple dish like fried egg. A year later, he cooked chicken rice. After some practices, he now can bake macaroni and cheese.

Last week, after he had finished his homework, he watched Fordon Ramsay and Chef Huan videos on how to make new chicken dishes on YouTube. These two are his favourite cooks from California and Kuala Lumpur. As he was watching the videos, he saw a pop-up advertisement to find a cook to make lunch for the poor in Happiness Kitchen, near to his area.

Karim was happy to be a part of the team. Ms. Chong, head of the kitchen, showed him the place and other cooks who made the meals together. On that day, they cook fish curry, mixed vegetables with white rice. He was excited as he had done a good thing. He hoped that one day, he will be a nice and kind chef.
