Name: _____

Score: _____ / 100 (5 bonus points)

FCE – Test Paper 1
Units 1 + 6

Vocabulary

1. Complete these sentences by writing the correct prepositions in the gaps. (3p x 6 = 18p)

1. You can always rely _____ Adam to be on time. He's so dependable.

2. We managed to come _____ with a great idea for our school project.

3. We need to set _____ early for our hiking trip tomorrow morning!

4. Jim rarely falls _____ with his Tom. It's admirable how they hardly ever fight!

5. I met my best friend at a party and we hit it _____ immediately.

6. Sarah takes _____ her mother. They both have brown hair and green eyes.

2. Complete these sentences by writing a word below in each gap. (3p x 7 = 21p)

fun | funny | job | occasion | opportunity | possibility | work

1. My uncle and aunt have invited me to spend a month with them in Australia.

It's the _____ of a lifetime.

2. I only went to the swimming pool on one _____ – and it was closed!

3. We went to the theme park but it rained all day. It wasn't _____ at all.

4. Liam is looking for a summer _____ because he doesn't have any money.

5. In the coffee shop, Dad sat on a doughnut. It was so _____ – even he laughed in the end!

6. If you go to the centre of London, there is a small _____ that you'll see someone famous.

7. My parents are looking for someone to help on their farm. It's hard, physical _____, but it's enjoyable.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3. Circle the two possible options in italics in each of these sentences. (2p x 8 = 16p)

1. This is a challenging / skilled / permanent job, which is why it requires years of training.

2. My mum's a carpenter. It's an office / a manual / a skilled job, making things from wood.

3. This is a full-time / part-time / weekend job because you only work Saturdays and Sundays.

4. Justine works as a forest ranger. She always wanted an outdoor / a responsible / a temporary job.

5. Builders need to have regular breaks because they do badly-paid / hard / tiring work.

6. Being a lawyer is demanding / manual / well-paid work, and you need to be highly qualified.

7. My last job was too demanding / fascinating / tough. I just couldn't work all those hours.

8. This job is a full-time / part-time / temporary position. You are expected to work five days a week, but the company only needs someone for one year.

Grammar

4. Complete these sentences with Present Perfect Simple (have / has V3) or Present Perfect Continuous (have / has + been + VB -ING). You may use contractions. (2p x 10 = 20p)

1. You _____ (eat) three doughnuts already – don't have another one!

2. We _____ (sit) on the train for ten minutes and we're still in the station!

3. I _____(do) this crossword for hours but there are still two answers I can't get.

4. Jez _____(know) his best friend since they were at primary school together.

5. I'm crying because I _____(chop) onions and I still have more to do!

LIVEWORKSHEETS

6. I don't want to go to bed yet. I _____(read) this book and I only have five more pages left.

7. Don't tell Harry that Ms. Jones is leaving the school. He _____ (not hear) the news.

8. My parents _____ (not see) any of the Star Wars movies. They are not fans of science fiction.

9. I think I _____ (lose) my house keys! I can't find them anywhere.

10. You _____ (forgot) to write your name on your homework! Write it at the top.

5. Circle the correct option. (2p x 10 = 20p)

1. You can't bring too much luggage / too many luggages on the trip. We have limited space.

2. Nobody seems to care about a / an / the / - elderly any more.

3. I haven't got any information / any informations about the author's visit to the school.

4. 7. I play the piano but I don't actually like a / an / the / - classical music.

5. I've been to the hospital and I'm afraid that the news isn't / aren't good.

6. My home village is on a / an / the / - Nile River.

7. Is a / an / the / - National History Museum far from here?

8. If you're hungry, I've left some money for you. You can find it / them on the table.

9. I think a / an / the / - anger is a major problem in modern society.

10. I see you're still upset about this. Can I give you an advice / some advice?

LIVEWORKSHEETS