Discovery Activity — Comparatives (A2)

Read the examples and understand them.

1) This movie is more interesting than that one.

2) My house is bigger than your house.

3) My job is more difficult than my brother's

4) Today is colder than yesterday.

5) My city is more beautiful than your city.

6) English is easier than German.

7) I got a better grade on this exam than on the previous one.

Guided questions (discover the pattern)

1. Read the sentences again. How many things are we comparing in each sentence:

Two	Three or more

2. Identify the adjectives in each sentence and classify them in short and long

Short adjectives	Long adjectives

3. What do we add after the adjective when it's short? _____

4. What do we add before the adjective when it's short? _____

5. Which adjective is irregular? _____

6. Complete the following sentence: Elephants are more intelligent _____ cats.

LIVEWORKSHEETS