Conjunctions and Interjections Review

A. Circle the conjunctions in each sentence.

1. Organisms live together in communities made up of both plants and animals.

2. Communities may by very big or very small.

4. Not only arctic tundras but also tropical jungles are considered biomes.

5. Some animals are found in only one layer of a biome, but most animals range through several layers

6. In a biome, some species of animals are active during the day, whereas some are active at night.

B. Write a sentence that has examples of the type of interjection appropriate for the following feelings.

1. Joy

_____

_____

2. Pain

_____

_____

3. Anger

_____

_____

4. Surprise

_____

_____

5. Relief

_____

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS