PART A — VOCABULARY: COLLOCATIONS (DECISIONS)

make	stick to	look into postpone	betray	evaluate

A1. Complete the sentences with a collocation above.

1. I always try to _____ my principles, even when it's hard.
2. Before acting, we should _____ the situation carefully.
3. He decided to _____ his decision until next week.
4. Cheating means you _____ your principles.
5. It's sometimes difficult to _____ a decision quickly.

PART B — GRAMMAR: PAST & MIXED CONDITIONALS

1. If he _____ (study), he _____ (pass) the exam.
2. If I _____ (know) the truth, I wouldn't be so upset now.
3. She _____ (not lose) the job if she _____ (arrive) on time.
4. If we _____ (have) more money, we would travel more now.
5. If you _____ (ask) me, I would have helped you.

PART C — GRAMMAR: -ING OR INFINITIVE

1. I decided _____ (to wait / waiting).
2. She enjoys _____ (to read / reading).
3. He promised _____ (to help / helping).
4. They avoid _____ (to talk / talking) about politics.
5. I want _____ (to learn / learning) English better.

C2. REWRITE USING THE CORRECT FORM.

Example: I stopped to smoke. → I stopped smoking.

I hope seeing you soon. → _____

She suggested to go to the beach. → _____

They plan going to Europe. → _____

He finished to clean the kitchen. → _____

We agreed meeting later. → _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS