BÀI TẬP VỀ IDIOMS

1120. You don't have to make a decision now; just _____and think about it.

A. let it slide B. sit tight C. go the extra mile D. hit the road

1121. She was _____when her boss praised her work in front of the whole office.

A. in the loop B. on cloud nine C. on thin ice D. back to square one 1122. After hours of arguing, they finally saw _____.

A. the light at the end of the tunnel B. eye to eye

C. the writing on the wall D. red tape

1123. The manager didn't want to make any big decisions, so he just _____.

A. passed the buck B. went out on a limb C. hit the roof D. pulled strings

1124. I was so embarrassed when I _____during the presentation.

A. let my hair down B. put my foot in my mouth

C. hit the sack D. killed two birds with one stone

1125. Despite the challenges, he decided to _____and start his own business.

A. take the plunge B. call it a day C. sit tight D. burn the candle at both ends

1126. After winning the lottery, he was _____.

A. raining cats and dogs B. on cloud nine

C. under the weather D. chasing rainbows

1127. She's been _____ever since she got that bad cold.

A. on thin ice B. under the weather C. stealing thunder D. in a fog

1128. When I asked him about the problem, he just _____.

A. broke the ice B. chased rainbows

C. stole my thunder D. threw caution to the wind

1129. We had to cancel the picnic because it was _____all day.

A. stealing thunder B. raining cats and dogs C. on cloud nine D. on thin ice

1130. They were optimistic about the project, but I warned them not to _____.

A. have their head in the clouds B. weather the storm

C. make hay while the sun shines D. chase rainbows

1131. When he lost the game, he was _____.

A. under the weather B. feeling blue C. on cloud nine D. on thin ice

1132. The CEO suddenly resigned, which _____the company's future plans.

A. stole the thunder of B. put a cloud over

C. threw caution to the wind D. took the wind out of the sails of 1133. She's been _____ever since she found out she got the promotion.

A. on thin ice B. on cloud nine

C. under the weather D. raining on someone's parade

1134. We managed to _____and get through the tough financial times.

A. steal the thunder B. weather the storm

C. chase rainbows D. have our heads in the clouds

LIVEWORKSHEETS