Phrasal verbs About Love and Friendship

Instructions: Choose the correct phrasal verb from the list provided (to make up with, to break up with, to get along with, to cheat on, to drift apart, to jerk someone around, to settle down, to put up with, to go out with, and ask someone out) to fill in the blank in each sentence.

a. Mia has been _____ Kevin for a year now, and they seem really happy together.

b. I don't know how she _____ his bad attitude; he's always so rude!

c. Lisa and Tom used to fight a lot, so they finally decided to _____ last month.

d. After their big argument, Sarah decided to _____ her best friend and apologize.

e. Jason finally got the courage to _____ Emma _____ on a date.

f. Over the years, we started to _____ and lost touch since we moved to different cities.

g. He's been _____ her _____ for months, promising commitment but never following through.

h. After years of traveling, Jake finally wants to _____ and start a family.

i. I really _____ my coworkers; we have a great time together at the office.

j. Mark found out that his girlfriend had been _____ him, so he ended the relationship.

LIVEWORKSHEETS