Melody / Harmony– Nat 5

HARMONIC

- A chord in which certain notes clash..
- Change of key.
- The last chord at the end of a phrase is V. It sounds unfinished.
- Chords V I at the end of a phrase. It sounds finished.
- 'Oom cha' accompaniment in the piano or guitar

MELODIC

- Sliding from one note to another.
- A melody which is sung above the main melody.
- Nonsense words and sounds are made up by the singer. Used mainly in jazz.
- Vocal music where each note is given one syllable.
- A melodic phrase which is repeated at a higher or lower pitch.
- The notes of a chord are played separately – e.g CEGC
- A melody played against the main melody.
- Vocal music where several notes are sung to each syllable.
- Decorating a melody by adding short notes.
- Notes which move by the interval of a semitone.
- Moving quickly and repeatedly between notes next to each other.

Trill	Sequence
Modulation	Arpeggio
Scat singing	Chromatic
Ornament	Imperfect cadence
Glissando	Descant
Melismatic	Perfect cadence
Discord	Syllabic
Vamp	Countermelody

LIVEWORKSHEETS