Indian Cities

Read each city's description of itself. Then name it :

1. My name means 'pool of nectar'. I'm famous for my Golden Temple. _____
2. I am on the east coast. I have over 800 temples built in the Odisha style. _____
3. The Pandavas called me Indraprastha, the Mughals called me Shahjahanabad, my most modern (eighth) version was designed by Edward Lutyens. _____
4. My famous Wind Palace, and other pink sandstone buildings date to over two hundred years ago. People come from all over the world to see me. _____
5. I was once called Bhagyanagar. I contain the famous Salar Jung Museum. My Four Towers are famous. _____
6. I was built using the human body as a grid by Le Corbusier. I have 'green lungs' and I am divided into sectors. _____
7. I am called the City of Gardens. I don't know if it is still an apt name. _____
8. I am named after Sikandar Lodhi. I am known as the industrial capital of Punjab. _____
9. In ancient times, I was called Pataliputra , the capital of the Magadha Empire. _____
10. I am the natural urban beach , the Marina. _____
11. I am the Orange Capital of India. I also have an important railway junction. _____
12. My name means 'area market'. I am the Gateway to the East. _____
13. My state's tea is world-famous. I was the first capital of the British in India. Job Charnock founded me. _____

KNOW MORE

The modern city of Chandigarh, which you see today, was designed by a great architect of his time, Le Corbusier.

HELP BOX

Bhubaneswar, Amritsar, New Delhi, Jaipur, Hyderabad, Chandigarh, Patna, Nagpur, Guwahati, Kolkata, Chennai, Bengaluru, Ludhiana

LIVEWORKSHEETS