Complete by writing the verb in bold in the correct form in each pair of sentences.

1 I wish you'd stop ..... us you're going to get an A because it's not certain, you know.
2 Miss Edwards was explaining some grammar to us but she had to stop ..... a couple of the girls to be quiet. tell

3 When you're in town, remember ..... some snacks for this evening.
4 I remember ..... out of the car and I think I saw the motorbike, but everything after that is a blank. get

5 We regret ..... that flight RA 721 has been cancelled.
6 I regret ..... that I was going to resign because I changed my mind soon after. announce

7 The lecturer ignored the interruption and went on ..... as if nothing had happened.
8 The lecturer described the social conditions in the 1930s and went on ..... about the effect of the war. talk

9 You're going to be angry, but I forgot ..... to the bank to pay that cheque in.
10 Don't tell me you've forgotten ..... to the Blue Mountains! It was only last summer. go

11 The air conditioner wasn't working so I tried ..... the batteries in the remote control, but it didn't make any difference.
12 There must be something wrong with the remote control because every time I try ..... channels, nothing happens. change

13 We like ..... the car serviced at least once a year, just to be on the safe side.
14 No, don't! I really don't like ..... my feet tickled like that! have

Write one suitable word in each gap.

Jason had just _____ on a career as a software engineer at a prominent tech company. Initially, everything seemed perfect. He was _____ his appointments meticulously and was glad to carry out _____ that challenged his intellect. His career _____ off much faster than he had anticipated, and he soon began to wonder where this newfound success might lead him. Despite the fast-paced environment, he found immense _____ satisfaction in developing innovative solutions that made a difference. One day, a senior position unexpectedly opened up when a colleague had to leave _____ short notice. The management was looking to _____ the vacancy quickly. Jason, with his extensive experience _____ software development, was considered a strong candidate. He was available to _____ work on advanced projects immediately, and everyone thought he would _____ on work in the senior role seamlessly. However, something was nagging at him, a feeling he couldn't quite shake. Except _____ the hectic schedule and overtime, which he usually didn't mind, the new possibilities appeared promising - yet he couldn't _____ thinking it was time for him to reconsider his priorities. The new post would inevitably mean _____ to work extra hours; and while at first Jason truly meant _____ accept the position, he ultimately decided to focus on what truly mattered: contentment and a balanced life. In the end, he never regretted _____ the offer down, knowing that personal peace was as valuable as professional triumph.

Choose the correct answer.

1 When she suggested ..... over the weekend, I was so angry that I threatened to quit.
A me to working C me work
B me to work D me working

2 The manager requested that all staff ..... present at the meeting.
A have been C are being
B be D being

3 Didn't you ..... that Martha wasn't with Ashley?
A think it strange C think strangely
B think strange D think it strangely

4 It's very important that we ..... as soon as there's any change in the patient's condition.
A be it notified C were notified
B being notified D be notified

5 I feel ..... to inform the committee that a number of members are very unhappy with the decision.
A my duty C it my duty
B this my duty D that my duty

6 After what the manager said this morning, I didn't ..... him about the problems I've been having.
A dare telling C dare tell
B dare it telling D dare to telling

7 Don't you ..... that Veronica and George are still together?
A incredibly find C find incredibly
B find incredible D find it incredible

8 You shouldn't have let Kerry ..... without apologising for what you said to her.
A leave C leaving
B to leave D to leaving

9 It was a bit embarrassing when the teacher caught us ..... during the test.
A to cheat C cheat
B cheating D to cheating

10 It's not fair to make the dog ..... in the car on such a hot day.
A to wait C wait
B waiting D for waiting

LIVEWORKSHEETS