DECEMBER 2014 MATURA VOCABULARY EXERCISES {PR}

Fill in missing prepositions

1. It is absurd to argue ..... this.
2. She laughed ..... response ..... his jokes.
3. They insist ..... playing their music late at night.
4. She came up ..... a great idea for increasing sales.
5. The class burst .....laughing.
6. Thousands of English words derive ..... Latin.
7. Fresh flowers will brighten ..... any room in the house.
8. Clean ..... this room immediately - and that's an order!
9. Is there anything .....particular you'd like for dinner?
10. Do you think many people will turn .....?
11. You should concentrate ..... your study.
12. She is about to embark ..... a diplomatic career.
13. Edinburgh is well provided .....clinical teaching hospitals.
14. He was obsessed ..... American gangster movies.
15. There is a ban ..... smoking in petrol stations.
16. We managed to get to the airport ..... time.
17. Your headaches are due .....stress.
18. Many hair problems result ..... what you eat.
19. I fully understand the reason ..... your decision.
20. Stick ..... the main roads and you won't get lost.
21. The history of tobacco growing is associated ..... colonialism and slavery.
22. Focus ..... small goals instead of big ones.
23. It's much easier compared ..... last time.
24. She refused to testify ..... her husband.
25. The insurance company is responsible ..... this case.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

26. The park was filled ..... People.

27. Don't turn ..... from your old friends.

28. Paul likes to boast .....his achievements.

29. Don't stare .....people like that, it's rude.

30. The explorers set ..... to conquer new territories.

31. How did you find ..... about the party?

32. How did it turn .....?

33. We had 200 people show .....for our seminar.

34. I'm sure it'll work .....

35. She set .....her own software firm.

36. Both buildings were badly affected ..... the fire.

37. The police have so far failed to track ..... the attacker.

LIVEWORKSHEETS