Jaya is a happy boy. Today is Saturday. Jaya and his family will go to the beach. They will go to Pasir Putih beach.

"Let's go, Jaya!" says Mama Dewi. They ride in their family car. The car drives fast. They see green trees and blue mountains.

Soon, they stop. They are at the gate. A man asks for the ticket money. The ticket is twenty thousand rupiahs. Karto pays the money.

Now they are at the beach! Pasir Putih means White Sand. The sand is soft and white. The water is clear and blue. This is a beautiful scenic view.

Look! Many boats are floating on the water. The boats are very colorful. Some are red, some are yellow, and some are blue. Jaya waves at the boats.

Jaya takes off his shoes. He runs into the ocean water. The water is cool. Mama Dewi watches him play. Splish! Splash!

"I am hungry now," says Jaya. The sun is high. Papa Karto brings out the food. It is delicious local food.

They eat fish and rice. They drink sweet juice. The food tastes so good! Eating by the beach is fun.

The day ends. The sun starts to go down. The sky turns orange and pink. "Pasir Putih is great!" says Jaya.

They drive home slowly. Jaya feels sleepy. He thinks of the white sand and colorful boats. He loves his family trip.
