Correct the mistakes in every sentence

1. Jack has learned to play chess, but neither of his many friends can play with him.
2. She showed a checked tie and a striped tie and told me that I could have all of them.
3. I tried on two pairs of shoes, but either of them was the right size.
4. John is unreliable: he has kept all of his promises.
5. All your friends are going to stay in town, so you can celebrate your birthday neither this or next weekend.
6. I texted to him, but got none answer.
7. You can come on Saturday or Sunday. Any day is OK.
8. Sarah is all good-looking and intelligent.
9. No of the horror films I saw with this actor was good.
10. I don't have no friends.

either neither both no

none either either

any both none

LIVEWORKSHEETS